The Deadline to Submit an Application is:

~~October 5, 2018 @ 11:59 PM EST~~

Extended Deadline! October 19, 2018 @ 11:59 EST

Background

Dr. Luther Brady served as an innovator and educator in the field of radiation oncology for over 50 years. In the spirit of his legacy, The American College of Radiation Oncology (ACRO) Resident Committee is offering a funding opportunity to Resident members of ACRO. The committee is acutely aware of the benefit that monetary support for small projects can provide. Therefore, the committee will offer funds to support 2 educational projects, which are traditionally difficult to fund through standard research mechanisms.

Scholarship Details

- ACRO will provide two $2,000 grants for education projects in radiation oncology.
- Of the $2,000 awarded, $1,000 will be appropriated towards funding the research project, and $1,000 will be awarded 3 months later in a second installment for the project or can be used to travel to the ACRO annual meeting (The Radiation Oncology Summit).
- Award recipients will be notified by October 15th, and the first $1,000 will be awarded within 2 weeks of notification.
- Recipients must either present at the ACRO Annual Meeting March 7-9, 2019 in Orlando, FL, or submit an interim report to the Resident Committee by that date. The final report must be given by mid-May.
- The travel portion of the scholarship will be provided after the presentation at The Radiation Oncology Summit or after the report is provided.
- Final acceptance and disbursement of funds is subject to review by the ACRO Resident Committee.

Eligibility

- Applicants must be members of ACRO and in good standing in a U.S. residency program.
- Applicants must list a primary mentor for their project.
- All submissions must include the following:
